Out of this World

Main Subject Focus	Intent: Why?	Links to prior and wider learning
History	To gain a coherent knowledge and understanding of	To build upon knowledge of developments in
	Britain's past and that of the wider world. It will inspire our	technology and industry.
Key Concepts Taught	curiosity to know more about the past. To help us	To build upon knowledge and understanding of
Cause and Consequence	understand the complexity of people's lives, the process of	conflict between countries and continents change, the diversity of societies and relationships between	including their location.
	different groups, as well as our own identity and the	Read All About It, Trains, Planes and challenges of our time.	Automobiles, Goodnight Mr Tom

Knowledge

• Pupils should be taught about a study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066

By the end of this unit, pupils will learn:

- Space Race
- Moon Landing
- Legacy of WWII
- Cold War
- Link this to the local and current relevance

Year 5	Year 6
 Uses timelines to place and sequence local, national and international events. Sequences historical periods. Identifies changes within and across historical periods. 	 Uses timelines to place events, periods and cultural movements from around the world. Uses timelines to demonstrate changes and developments in culture, technology, religion and society. Describes main changes in a period in history using words such as: social, religious, political, technological and cultural. Names date of any significant event studied from past and place it correctly on a timeline.
Gives some causes and consequences of the main events, situations and changes in the periods studied. Identifies changes and links within and across the time periods studied.	Shows identified changes on a timeline. Describes similarities and differences between some people, events and objects studied. Describes how some changes affect life today. Makes links between some features of past societies.
Looks at different versions of the same event and identifies differences in the accounts. Gives clear reasons why there may be different accounts of history. Knows that people (now and in past) can represent events or ideas in ways that persuade others. Asks a range of questions about the past. Chooses reliable sources of evidence to answer questions. Realises that there is often not a single answer to historical questions.	Understands that the past has been represented in different ways. Suggests accurate and plausible reasons for how/why aspects of the past have been represented and interpreted in different ways. Knows and understands that some evidence is propaganda, opinion or misinformation and that this affects interpretations of history Evaluates the usefulness and accurateness of different sources of evidence. Forms own opinions about historical events from a range of sources.
 Presents structured and organised findings about the past using speaking, writing, maths, ICT, drama and drawing skills. Uses dates and terms accurately. Chooses most appropriate way to present information to an audience 	Presents information in an organised and clearly structured way. Makes use of different ways of presenting information. Presents information in the most appropriate way (eg written explanation/tables and charts/labelled diagram). Makes accurate use of specific dates and terms.

Wider curriculum links:

Art- Peter Thorpe

Science- Space

Key Texts:

A Hundred Billion Trillion Stars (Greenwillow Books, 2017), 'I am Neil Armstrong' (Dial Books, 2018), 'Look Inside Space' (Usborne, 2012), A Cat's guide to the night sky

Key Vocabulary/ Etymology

Expedition, Cold War, Exploration, Astronaut, Solar, Lunar, Constellations, Patriotic, Space Race, Conflict

Wow moment

Leicester Space Centre

School Values- Determination- shown by those involved in the space race and the perseverance shown to achieve space travel British Values- Democracy- different types of government- USA/ Russia/ UK